Marylebone Team, Perced to Pollow First Innings, Have Only Four Wickets to Lose at Call of Time—Drawn Match Greatly in Favor of Philadelphians.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—The second game of the Marylebone Cricket team ended to-day on the grounds of the Philadelphia C. C., at Wissahickon Heights, in a drawn match. Wissahickon Heights, in a drawn match. The fact that the contest had been limited to two days, and the interruption caused by rain yesterday, made any other result improbable. Still, the Colts deserve all credit for their splendid display at the bat, and several of the boys were heartly congratulated by their opponents after the game for their good showing. There is little doubt that had time allowed the Colts would have

The Englishmen brought the innings of their opponents to a rather abrupt conclusion this morning. Sydney Young, the captain, kept up his wicket all right, but the rest of the team yielded easily, and all were out for s total of 224. The Englishmen then assumed the defensive, sending C. H. Eyre and H. J. Wyld to face the bowling of J. W. Potts and J. K. Vetterlein. These two batsmen were almost immediately bowled by Potts, while M. W. Payne was caught and bowled by Vetterlein. With 3 wickets down, Capt. Mann formed a partnership with K. O. Hunter and the pair made quite a stand. After their dis-missal, however, the wickets fell rapidly missal, however, the wiesers leaf tapity and the innings was over for a total of 116, or 108 runs behind. A. G. Priestman did the best bowling for the Colts, with a record of 4 wickets for 12 runs. J. W. Potts took 3 for 28, L. Lee 2 for 7 and J. R. Vetterlein

Colts necessitated the Englishmen to their innings, and at one time it seemed be young players would win the game. J. Wyld and M. W. Payne made good and E. W. Mann and H. C. McDonnell on their wickets until time was called inclishmen had a narrow escape, howfor they were only 2 runs on 4 wickets do when play ceased. A. G. Priestman bowled well and got 2 wickets for

To-morrow the visitors will play a return aatch with the Gentlemen of Philadelphia at laverford. The score: PHILADELPHIA COLTS.

Travis Leads Field at Shinnecock With Fine Card of 73.

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., July 27 .- A good be ginning that promises a fine ending in the semi-final and final rounds is to be recorded for the opening play at the tenth annual midsummer tournament of the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club to-day. There was the usual gathering of the cottagrers at the club and much excitement about the home green, while the McBurney nd Travis match carried a gallery, Judge Horace Russell gave out two items of news that furnished food for chat. One was that the Boston, Philadelphia and New York and 7; the other that the intercollegiate tournanent will be held there in the week of Oct. 22. While only a few yards longer than last year, 5,832 against 5,791 yards, due to putting back the thirteenth tee, much money and labor have been expended in sodding and widening the fair green. To show their appreciation of his labors of love, some forty of the members here bought a foot high lowing cup as a gift to Newbold Edgar, chairman of the green committee. Charles E. Sands, the court tennis champion, and Judge Cornell were among the onlookers.

Medal play began the day, just a crisp and rattling go of eighteen holes, with four cup sets of eight to qualify. There was no wind in the morning, although the usual gale rolled in from off the ocean in the afternoon, and scoring conditions were ideal. Travis led the field with this fine card of 72: 3 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 57-72

This is within one stroke of the record held by Findlay Douglas. On the eleventh Travis called a stroke on himself, which is a record, sithough he has often called one an others, and shows that he believes in justice though the heavens fall. The ball really moved before Travis had addressed it, as his partner, Travers said, but the veteran penalized himself, be on the safe side. The youngsters of Eastern and Western teaching, Travers and Peters, came next on the list at 77. The former had a 2 on the third. Seven of the first eight were under 80, Malcolm McBurney closing the set at the latter total. Last year the top score in the fourth set was a single 91, but this time it was 95.

John Ward negotiated a stymie in beautiful style on the fourth hole in his match with Travers in the afternoon, but nothing could avail him, for the youngster finished in 73 and won by 4 and 3. This included a 5 on the 603 yard ninth hole, great play in the side wind. Ward did 79, Sullivan, after being 3 down, saved his match on the home green, while Peters easily disposed of Abbott. McBurney took the first two holes from Walter Travis, but the latter was 3 up playing the fourteenth. Here McBurney was within a foot of the cup, with Travis stymied on their thirds. The latter, borrowing from the slope of the ground twisted his hall past from a midiron and gained the half. Travis won by 2 and 1, the medal records being 75 and 76. Oswald Kirkby did a 77 in beating Ennever, coming home in 37. The summary:

The Brunswick Site Company Begins a Mortgage Foreclosure Suit With a View to Bidding In the Hotel Brunswick Property at Madison Square.

Two high priced building sites, which are still vacant, though bought for immediate improvement several years ago figured in yesterday's real estate news. The Brunswick Site Company brought suit in the Supreme Court against the Brunswick Construction Company to foreclose a mortgage of $150,000 on the easterly Fifth avenue block between Twenty-sixth and Twentyseventh streets. The mortgage was made on June 28, 1904, payable on March 1, 1905, to Samuel V. D. White, and assigned on July 13, 1905, to the Brunswick Site Company. George Carlton Comstock, attorney for the plaintiff, filed a lis pendens against the property yesterday.

The Brunswick Site Company was incorporated on July 13, with a capital stock of $2,000,000. Its directors are George H. Robinson, G. Louis Boissevain, Alfred G. Evans, Walter Geer, Wilhelmus Mynderse, John S. Hoyt of New York and B. P. Cheney of Boston. The stockholders are the under-writers of the bond issue which was made by the Brunswick Construction Company in connection with the scheme for a modern hotel on the old Brunswick site. The new company was formed to protect the bondholders' interests by bidding in the property. The hotel project has been abandoned.

Arrangements were also made for completing the theater at the northwest corner of Broadway and Forty-fifth street, foundations for which were laid about five years ago. The McVickar, Gaillard Realty Company formed a syndicate backed by Meyer
R. Bimberg, which is to take over Edward R. Thomas's lease on the property. The new company will erect a five story theater new company will erect a five story theater and office building from the original plans. The lease is for a period of eighteen years, with a privilege of two renewals for twenty-

Q .- Since the Mortgage Bonds are to run twenty years and the mortgages only three to five years, how are investors protected in the substituting of mortgages?

A .- First, by the agreement of the company to substitute only first mortgages on improved income-producing city real estate of the same character, which have been duly approved by the Executive Committee of the Lawyers Title Insurance and Trust Company, or some similar company in New York; and Second, by the policy of the company to secure as far as possi-ble mortgages running ten years with the "paydown" clause, so that only few substitutions may be necessary.
